The National Museum of the Marine Corps

And

The Jamboree at Fort AP Hill, Virginia

Please join us for three days of Patriotism and Scouting at its best!

Friday

We will leave New Jersey and head for Triangle, Virginia. Our first stop is The National Museum of the Marine Corps. We will tour the museum and it's many galleries. "Combining priceless artifacts, such as the original flag raised on Iwo Jima, with documentary films, combat art, and recordings of Marines telling their own stories, the galleries bring the war-time experiences of every Marine to life."

After the museum we will head to the hotel where dining and shopping opportunities are all within walking distance.

Saturday

After breakfast at the hotel, we will spend the entire day taking in the sights and sounds of the 17th National Scout Jamboree. Visit the exhibits, merit badge midway, look for familiar faces and then have dinner and a show - The 100th Anniversary Arena Show. Watch as all participants march into the arena carrying their flags with pride. It's a spectacle you won't want to miss.

Sunday

Breakfast at the hotel and then back home to share the experience with other Scouts and Scouters.
