SCOUT-O-REE!!

October 9, 2014 – 9:00 AM - 2:00 PM

"Do a good turn daily" - Boy Scouts of America.

An outdoor event that enables special students to enjoy a day of fresh air, nature, recognition, entertainment and fun! It is a nature and Native American heritage education day.

Held at Winnebago Scout Reservation in Rockaway, New Jersey

The committee has invited over 1000 students with various physical, learning, and emotional disabilities accompanied by their teachers, parents and siblings to attend. We hope that everyone is able to visit camp again this year.

Schedule for the day:

9:00- Staff sign-in and assignments

9:30-10:00-Buses and Scouts arrive

10:15- Nature Activities, Crafts & Native American Display
(or just take a hike up the road)

11:00- Animal Show with Rizzo's Reptiles!

12:00- Lunch time (or when the student needs to eat)

1:00- More activities, the Native American Display & Crafts

2:00- Buses and Scouts depart and clean-up
